

○ Iss. 27 | ○ March | ○ 2011

Coos Bay Coastal

Hops

It's Tougher in Alaska

www.coosbayhops.com

The difficult, we do immediately! The impossible takes a little longer...

*Winter has passed and spring is near
Just in time for us to cheer
Ahead awaits with beautiful scenes
while Coosbay pilots spread their wings*

Feedback

We want to know what you think!

We are always happy to hear from you.

Come fly with us and enjoy the art of flying

IT'S TOUGHER IN ALASKA

We are having some tough real-world weather flying to Coosbay's Alaska destinations lately. The challenge will be with us as winter gradually transitions into spring.

Join our sessions and fly through the breathtaking skies, sceneries, and challenging airports.

Updates Updates Updates ... Coosbayhops.com

This issue of the newsletter is dedicated to airport packages and goodies brought to you by the men-at-work at "COOS Australian Connection".

Thanks for flying Coosbay

There is more ...

*Make sure to download the Australia Antarctica package
while you are visiting the web site.*

And more ...

New Zealand airport package has landing strips and airports that are linked to Australia from both north & south islands.

Papua New Guinea airport package has challenging airports not too far from the equator with tall mountains with snow on them all year round. The weather can change rapidly for the worst. You will enjoy Coosbay's fantasy world in Papua New Guinea.

Download Coosbay Australian Training Planes with 2D & 3D panels that are tweaked for style. Drop by COOS AUSSIE Connection session and let Coosbay-AB know what you think of his work ... G'day, mate!

Information in this newsletter is developed by Kevin Kashi and Ted Robinson using the Coosbayhops website and published information on the internet. For questions, comments or suggestions regarding methods to improve the skill sets of PC pilots, airport and airplane design, please contact Kevin at CoosBayKevin@aol.com or Ted at trobin@molalla.net. Unauthorized use of the contents in this newsletter is prohibited.